COVERED WITH BANK NOTES.

Fantastic Stranger Creates Excitement in Western Maryland.

Hagerstown Md. May 20. — The police are making a search for a wild looking white man who is thought to be mentally deranged and who, accompanied much excitement along the Williamsport and Downsville turnpike Sunday. The stranger drove in to Downsville in a buggy at a fast pace with $5 and $10 bills stuck in and around his ears, twisted in his hair and sticking out of his pockets. The floor of the buggy was literally carpeted with bank notes.

When he reached Williamsport he created a great furor. An officer was sent for but he merely got a glimpse of the peculiar visitor going rapidly towards Hagerstown.

The animated bundle of "long green" frightened the occupants of the tollhouses wherever he stopped to pay toll.

After Williamsport all trace of him was lost.

RICHMOND'S HOMECOMING.

Plan to Reconcile Warring Factions.

Richmond, May 20.—With this as its rallying call, the city of Richmond will, in the year of grace 1915—probably in the month of May—hold a great home-coming celebration to which will be asked to come everybody residing within the borders of the Commonwealth, every person of Virginia birth or ancestry residing in other States of the Union, and all expatriated sons and daughters of the Old Dominion now dwelling in foreign lands.

In and honor of the big family reunion, there will be a pageant the like of which has never been seen in the country. It will depict in magnificent setting the Virginia valor and stamina that has wrought mightily throughout the history of the State and which, within the last half century, has caused her to rise triumphantly from the dissolution of war.

In the pageant will be shown the epoch-making events of the State's history, from the landing of John Smith at the falls of the James, to the commercial prosperity of the current year. The Revolution, the Colonial wars, the War Between the States, the Reconstruction period and the recovery, will all appear in historical sequence appropriately mounted and named.

MACHINE LEAVES ROAD.

Of Five Occupants, Not One Escaped Injury.

Winchester, Va., May 20.—A large automobile, occupied by J. W. Lewis and two sisters, of Bluemont, Loudoun County, and two brothers, named Hatcher, of Plains, Va., suddenly left the Winchester-Bluemont Turnpike Sunday night, two miles east of Berryville, where the party had spent the day, and none escaped without injury. One of the women was terribly gashed in the face, had several teeth knocked out and sustained serious bruises.

One of the Hatcher brothers was badly cut and bruised and had a fingernail torn off. The others suffered severe bruises and nervous shock. All were taken to Berryville and given medical attention and later taken to Bluemont.

EDITOR ARRESTED.

Danville Man Refused to Submit to Vaccination.

Danville, Va., May 20.—John N. Ragdale, editor and owner of "The Battle Axe," a monthly paper, was fined $10 in the mayor's court yesterday because he would not comply with the city ordinance making vaccination compulsory. Ragdale who never has been vaccinated, took an appeal, and was bonded in the sum of $25 for his appearance before the Corporation Court next June. He declared that inoculation was against his religious beliefs, and that he had not touched medicine for fourteen years. Recently, it is said, he made antivaccination utterings, and City Health Officer Hudson swore out a warrant against him.

REARDON & GRIMES, AGENTS. Foot of Cameron Street.

A number of persons were injured yesterday at Lancaster, Pa., when the big tent of the Buffalo Bill-Fawcett Bill show was blown down during a thunder storm. The accident occurred shortly after the show opened and a panic ensued as the many poles, ropes, and canvas fell, burying the audience. That none were seriously injured or killed was in the nature of a miracle, as several broncho busters and ropers were performing in the big tent when it collapsed. A considerable amount of wearing apparel, hats, and valuable articles were lost during the scramble to get from under the canvas.
